Noteables:

Frangione has three plays in development: Responder, Joytide, and The Seagull. She's had three short plays commissioned by ATP Brief new Works: Dropping off Doreen 2001, Bread Making, 2000, and Family Recipes 1999. PTE commissioned Grooms Dog, a short play, for the Carol Shields Festival, 2010. Her full length plays Black Leg Miner, Barber Babb and Tassel Rags, received amateur productions at Rosebud Theatre. Many of her listed plays are produced by schools and community theatres across North America and beyond. She has written a Kickstart award winning Leo nominated short film called Pop Switch and is in production with another short film, Rest Room. She won a full scholarship to attend AFS screenwriting program and will complete her studies in May 2025. She is a published poet and recently debuted her novel, Grazie, a BC best seller. She has also written over two hundred ADR animation scripts, and over fifty industrial and educational DVD and audio scripts for companies like Premier agendas. She's managed two historical sites in Barkerville park for three years, writing scripts for five first person interpreter presentations. She has performed several times at the Vancouver storyteller Festival and the Flame. She is a critically acclaimed film and stage actor working in regional theatres across Canada. She has taught playwriting at Langara College, Rosebud School of the Arts and the Arts Club educational series.
